Nothing Like Water

It isn't until the dry spell comes that we fully appreciate the value of water. If you invest in an EXCELSIOR ROUND HOOP TANK you'll always have plenty of water on your premises whether you live on Tantalus, in the plains or on any of the other islands. The price is reasonable and the tanks are built to endure the stress of all kinds of weather.

DEATH OF GRIMTHORPE.

LONDON, April 30.—Lord Grimthorpe is dead.

Edward Beckett, first Baron Grimthorpe (title created in 1886) was the son of Sir Edmund Beckett, a baronet, and Maria, daughter of William Beverley of Beverley. He was born May 12, 1816. He was married in 1845 to Fanny Lonsdale, daughter of the Bishop of Lichfield. He received his education at Eton and Trinity College, Cambridge, where he took high honors, being thirtieth wrangler in 1838. He became a barrister of Lincoln's Inn in 1841 and succeeded his father in the baronetcy in 1874. He is well known for his restoration of St. Alban's Cathedral and other churches there. He was Chancellor and Vicar-General of York from 1877 to 1900. Among his numerous publications are books on clocks, architecture, astronomy and other subjects. He was the owner of about 3,400 acres and resided at Batchwood, St. Albans. He is succeeded by his nephew, Col. Ernest William Beckett, M. P. (born 1850), a banker, sportsman, traveler and collector of works of art.

YOUNG BUYS
THE MOANA HOTEL

WILL RUN IT IN CO-OPERATION
WITH THE ALEXANDER YOUNG HOTEL.

Alexander Young has bought a controlling interest in the Moana Hotel, as was exclusively foreshadowed in The Star on Saturday. The Moana will be run to some extent in connection with the Young, and the present Walkiki annex of the Young will be given up.

Young stated on Saturday that he had already secured the control of the well known beach establishment and that it would be run to some extent in co-operation with the Young, though not altogether under the same management. An arrangement will be made whereby guests of the Young may transfer to the beach place and vice versa. The Young annex now used at the beach is the former private residence of Alexander Young. It will become a private place again and may be offered for sale.

SUGAR REPORTS.

Purser Friel of the W. G. Hall reports the following sugar ready for shipment at Kaula ports: K. S. M., 1500; M. A. K., 22,000; G. & R., 1785; McR., 15,000; K. P., 17,000; G. F., 13,235; P. L., 15,000; H. M., 31,000; M. S. Co., 500. Total 121,500.

Purser Storey of the Noeau reports the following sugar on Hawaii: H. S. Co., 3500; P. S. M., 2500; Diamond H., 1071; Panalua, none. Total 7571.

RENEAR IS CHAMPION.

In the race for the fifty yard championship which was pulled off on Saturday afternoon, Dan Renear defeated Ernest Kopke and Tom Hustace, swimming the distance in 28 seconds flat and thus tying the amateur record. The race was over the course beside the Bishop slip. Hustace was a close second and Kopke third by only a few inches.

In a preliminary race Freeeth of the Healanis won from Robertson of the Healanis and Bechert of the Myrtles.

SUES DR. MCGREW.

Mrs. Evelyn Cook Roe has brought suit for $10,000 damages against Dr. J. S. McGrew, claiming to have been damaged in that sum by the firing of a pistol by Dr. McGrew when she and her husband were having a sail on the lochs at Pearl Harbor April 12. The doctor has been considerably troubled by thieves lately and he fired several shots in the air on hearing the voices of the Roes, at the same time, it is alleged, shouting a threat to kill them. The complaint says that Dr. Roe was greatly terrified and made ill by the firing. Her attorney is A. S. Humphreys.
